I am a storyteller and adventurer. I love sharing the journey of my life through narratives and visuals with a wide audience. Embracing challenges is my passion, and my knowledge is a result of hands on experiences and the diverse interactions I had during my extensive travels. An enthusiast by nature, I remain open to the beauty of learning and the serendipity of all new interactions.

Experience

| 2025- Present World Wildlife Fund

Awareness campaign model for Human-Elephant Conflict in North-East India: Communication strategy, visual identity, photography, and promotional design.
(Due to NDA, I cannot share this project now but can present it in interviews.)
